

Zoning committee members Robert Bolton and Art Laursen listen to a plea for re-zoning of property made by Attorney John Kerns for his client, Kenneth Mayer.

Oakwood Knolls Residents Protest 2-Family Zoning

The hearing on Antioch's new Zoning Ordinance last Wednesday night was a relatively quiet one.

Although there were about 60 people at the hearing, and many had objections to the zoning classification which was proposed for their own property, there were no objections to zoning itself, nor to the provisions of the ordinance.

The greatest mass of objections came from residents of Oakwood Knolls, who protested the zoning of several lots along the north side of North Ave. The proposed zoning was R-4, or two-family dwellings. The protesters declared the two-family dwellings would down-grade the subdivision.

Former mayor Murrill Cunningham protested the R-4 zoning of his place of business. The zoning committee, he said, is "going to ram this down the people's throat." He requested business or industrial zoning. Property near him, he said, is zoned business and industrial.

After hearing the protests from Oakwood Knolls residents, Cunningham declared that "these people's wishes should be taken into consideration."

Only three members of the seven-man zoning committee were present Wednesday night—Chairman Robert Wilton, Arthur Laursen and Robert Bolton.

Before starting a roll call of objectors, Wilton explained the reason zoning was necessary, and the procedure that would be necessary for a change of zoning once an ordinance is passed.

Wilton said that a petition for re-zoning in Antioch would cost $25. The county charge is $100.

The zoning ordinance, with any changes that may be made after Wednesday night's meeting, will be presented to the village board. If they approve it, the Mayor will appoint a Board of Appeals.

Any petition for re-zoning will be presented to the Board of Appeals. They will set a hearing date, and publish notice of the date and time. Objections or arguments for the zoning will be heard at that time.

The board will then present a recommendation to the village board, who may approve or refuse the request.

Wilton then laid "ground rules" for Wednesday night's hearing. Each one who wishes to speak, he said, would have five minutes to voice his objections or suggestions. No action would be taken until the zoning board met to consider the suggestions.

The first objection to the R-4 zoning on North Ave. at the entrance to the Oakwood Knolls subdivision came from Marie Letkey, 322 Cedarwood. Others who protested the zoning on this same group of lots were Richard Peterson, 327 Lakewood; Henry Sr. Maplewold; Eugene Lasiak; Virginia Haas, 143 Lakewood; Mrs. Joseph Neyrinek, 249 Bridgewood; Mrs. Eugene Lasiak; Chris Schultz, 273 Oakwood; Fred Elam, 239 Bridgewood; Ed Johnson, 205 Bridgewood; Clarence Lundgren, 202 Hickory Lane; Mrs. Robert Bolton, 267 Hickory Lane; Sam Lombardo; Robert Schraeder, 486 Maplewood, and Steve O'Higgins, Lakewood. Final objection to the zoning was Kenneth Mayer, owner of the lots in question, who had an attorney present to speak for him.

Attorney John Kern said that Mr. Mayer wished to build a series of small shops on the lots in question, and requested business zoning. The stores would probably include a grocery, drug store, possibly even a doctor's office, Kerns said.

Several of the Oakwood Knolls residents declared they would be pleased with such an addition, and would not object to the business zoning.

The Oakwood Knolls residents said they would get up a petition and present it to the zoning committee asking that the two-family zoning be changed.

OTHER ZONINGS PROTESTED

Joseph Sterbenz, 910 David, requested zoning for a 2-family dwelling in place of one family.

Clifford Larson, 503 Orchard, requested zoning for a two-family dwelling.

Charles Ferris asked that the property at 601 Henry St. be zoned B3. Property across the street had this zoning, he said.

Robert Griffin, 806 Turner Drive, asked for B-1 zoning. The area, he said, will eventually be business.

Mrs. Dorothy Sanhamel, Main St., asked that Lots 3, 4 and 44 be given Business zoning rather than 1-family. There is a gas station next door, she said, and property zoned B-3 in the rear.

James Herman, 451 Orchard, requested B-1 zoning for his property. The property around him, he said, is zoned B-1.

Dick Witt, 919 David St., requested 2-family zoning, rather than 1-family.

Dudley Kennedy, 549 Lake St., requested B-3. Service and wholesale selling instead of B-1, retail selling.

Gordon Volting, 543 Lake, also requested B-3 in place of B-1.

More Industry Is Chamber Aim

President John Romer said Saturday night that one of the chief aims of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce this year will be to attract new industry to Antioch. Romer spoke at his installation as president of the Chamber for 1966.

About 150 people attended the dinner dance at which the 1966 officers were installed. The officers, in addition to Mr. Romer, are Earl Stringer, first vice president; Ray Jensen, second vice president; secretary-treasurer, Preston Reckers, Jr.; members of the Board of Directors, Jervell S. Babb, Richard Erickson, George Hahn, Louis Simon and Dale Starkey.

Fred Walpole acted as Master of Ceremonies for the installation of Officers. Retiring president Richard Miller was presented with a plaque in appreciation of his work in guiding the Chamber last year.

Romer said more industry is needed in Antioch, to stimulate growth and provide a favorable tax base. Antioch has room for industry, he pointed out, and the Chamber will work to induce industry to locate here.

He was impressed, he said, by the fact that Soo Line officials has chosen Antioch, one of three towns visited in this area, as a favorable spot for industry sites.

Higher Pay For Teachers Next Year

Antioch High School teachers will receive a $100-a-year increase in salary next year.

The salary schedule for the 1966-67 school year was approved by the high school board of education at Wednesday night's meeting of the board. The schedule provides for a $5,400 salary for beginning teachers with a Bachelor's degree, compared to the previous $5,300, with a top salary of $7,950 for the teacher who has served 12 years.

The beginner with a Master's degree will get $5,800, with a top of $9,100, after 15 years.

Fringe benefits that have been added for the teachers include an increase of about $100 in the schedule of extra pay for extra duties, such as coaching, work with Year Book, etc.; a new clause providing for special leave for teachers with two years seniority; an increase in sick leave, from ten days a year to fifteen days, with an increase in allowable accumulation of 60 days instead of 60, and the addition of group life insurance.

The board reported $40,000 invested in government bills, maturing from March to August.

The school calendar for next year was adopted, conforming with Dr. Petty's calendar. School will start on Sept. 6, 1966, and close June 8, 1967.

Dr. Albert Bucar was appointed to represent the school board at the annual meeting of the Special Education District at Mundelein High School on February 24.

Specifications for the "insurance package" were approved and mailed to about 15 companies for bids. The bids will be opened at the March 14 meeting, and the insurance is expected to be effective as of April 1. The "package deal" will combine all school insurance except student insurance. The board expects to get a much lower price on the insurance by dealing with only one company.

The board approved installation of stair railings in two areas in the school considered hazardous. One, according to Superintendent Albert Dittman, is the steep inclined ramp connecting the 1952 and 1962 additions. The other is a stair in the 1915 building. Cost of the railings is $577.

Attorney Ted Larson discussed several laws passed by the last General Assembly affecting schools.

The school is entitled to approximately $450 under Title 11 of the National Education Act for the school library. It will be used for additional professional books for the faculty and for the student library.

State Parks Have Many Visitors

In 1965, for the first time, three Illinois state parks attracted over 1,000,000 visitors each. James W. McMillen, state parks and memorials supervisor, reported last week. Total attendance for state parks, memorials and conservation areas was 17,931,541, a new record. The total 1964 attendance was 15,975,040 persons.

For the second consecutive year, Illinois Beach State Park with its swimming, nature area and lodge, had the largest attendance. This park along the shore of Lake Michigan attracted 1,472,629, compared to 1,211,343 in 1964. Starved Rock was the second most popular park and its scenic sights drew 1,133,116 visitors. Historically famous Lincoln's New Salem State Park, with its reconstructed Lincoln village, brought people from all over the world to the number of 1,047,305.

We understand they've graded the atom bomb into three sizes: Big, tremendous, and where is everybody?

Loop Dead Ends Or Filter; Board Undecided

Water problems, both surface water and the problem of what to do about the iron content of the village well water, took up most of the Antioch village board Tuesday night at their regular meeting.

Edgar Simonsen, superintendent of Public Works attended the meeting for the first time since his recent heart attack.

The board was presented with the problem of what to do about sewers, that back up into basements on Spafford St.; the most satisfactory and economical way to solve the iron problem in village water; how best to drain surface water from around the Scout House, and removal of the obstruction of Sequoi Creek.

Village Engineer Roger Patzer gave the board an estimate of the cost of installing a filtration plant to remove iron from the water. Mayor Ray Toft asked the engineer if the manufacturer would guarantee that no home in the village would have water with too much iron if the filtration plant were installed.

Patzer said, No, no such guarantee could be given. The tests are taken immediately outside the plant, he said. Homes along dead end lines might still receive iron, he said, picked up from the pipes.

Toft said many homes in the village now receive satisfactory water, while others have heavy iron content. Patzer said it was thoroughly possible that looping the dead end water mains might eliminate most of the problem.

"How does our water compare with that of most other villages?" was Toft's next question of Patzer. Patzer replied that, "Frankly if most towns had water as good as yours they'd leave it alone."

"How much will yearly maintenance of the filtration plant cost?" was Toft's next question of Patzer. Patzer said he couldn't give an estimate of the cost, but he felt sure it would be minor.

Toft tried to pin the engineer down to an estimate of the yearly cost of maintenance of a filtration plant. "If it's minor, how come cities like Libertyville can't afford to maintain them?" Toft asked. "I'm sure some city that has a filtration plant like the one we'd install here can give us an idea of what

Protest Operation Of Garbage Dump

Residents of Little Silver Lake subdivision are still looking for ways to insure that the HOD Disposal garbage dump will not become a nuisance to them.

Members of the Little Silver Lake Improvement Association said they are worried about the effect of a ditch dug by HOD close to their lake; the possible fire hazard if the dump catches fire; pollution of their lake; the smell of garbage in summer, and the possibility that rats will infest the dump and spread in to their subdivision.

A delegation of the residents were present at the Antioch Zoning Ordinance hearing last Wednesday night, seeking information on village control of the dump. They were advised by Chairman Robert Wilton to bring their complaint to a village board meeting. Mayor Ray Toft suggested that they meet with John Horak, owner of HOD, after the meeting.

George Schoenleben, Wayne Erickson, Nick Gillio, Fred Bernier and Lawrence Lulich, all of Silver Lake, questioned Horak about his intentions.

The delegation said the ditch recently dug by Horak around the dump was their chief worry. They feared that the water level of Little Silver would be lowered by the drainoff into the ditch, and possible pollution of their lake if an obstruction made the water back up.

Horak said he dug the ditch in compliance with an order from the Lake County Health Dept. to drain the property. The ditch wouldn't drain the lake, he said, because it did not come up to the lake. As for pollution, he said Little Silver was higher than his land and the water couldn't back up into it. Horak suggested that the residents build a dam to insure that water wouldn't drain off into the ditch.

Erickson said that the ditch cut across the original bed of Sequoi Creek, changing its course.

Horak told the delegation that he is required to cover the garbage each night. He is not allowed to burn garbage, he said, though he has a permit to burn from the village. A couple of times a fire started from a "hot load," he said, and he put it out.

Lawrence Lulich said fire had twice threatened their homes when it spread from the dump, and that the Health Dept. had assured them that burning was not allowed. The residents warned Horak that they would complain to the Health Dept. if there were any fire.

George Schoenleben asked Horak if it were true that the dump was used for garbage from surrounding communities. When Horak said yes, Schoenleben protested the hauling of garbage from other areas. Horak said he couldn't afford to maintain the dump unless he used it to service other communities.

Horak owns 80 acres, of which 20 acres is now included in a special use permit for dumping garbage. Horak said he intended to use all 80 acres eventually.

Members of Little Silver Lake Improvement Association met Sunday afternoon to discuss what steps they could take in relation to the dump.

The members decided to inform the Lake County Zoning Commission, the Antioch Village Board and Zoning Commission and the Lake County Health Dept. that they were opposed to extending the special use permit beyond the 20 acres now used for the dump, and that they would like to be notified if such a permit were applied for. George Christiansen declared that unless all governing bodies concerned were so notified they would "pass the buck," as they had when the group sought information before. He recommended that the group hire a lawyer if necessary.

They also resolved to ask Horak to construct a spillway to keep water from flowing from Little Silver Lake

Antioch Post Office Closed Tuesday

Postmaster Clarence Kufalk reminds Antioch patrons that the local post office will be closed Tuesday, February 22, in observance of Washington's birthday.

Washington's birthday is a national holiday and there will be no mail delivery on that day, either rural or in the village.

The local banks will remain open next Tuesday, as will the local schools.

Mr. Kufalk also reminded patrons on rural routes that approaches to their mail boxes must be kept open. The mailman, he reminded patrons, is under no obligation to leave his car to deliver mail. So, in the event of a snowstorm, shovel an approach to your mail box so that the mailman can drive up to it.

Needless Deaths

The discovery of a successful measles vaccine was one of the most tremendous advances of modern medicine. Yet this year, four years after the vaccine was licensed for use, it's estimated that 500 children in the U. S. will die from the disease. Many more will be handicapped as a result of measles.

A major measles epidemic already has a good start in Illinois. Dr. Arthur Baker reports that 99 cases were reported in Lake County in January.

Measles is a common childhood disease, and yet such a deadly and insidious killer that millions of mothers heaved a sigh of relief when the news of a successful vaccine was announced. Now measles, like smallpox and polio, would be wiped out. With every child vaccinated against measles, there would be no one to carry it to babies too young to be given the vaccine.

It hasn't worked out that way, at all. An amazing number of parents have simply not taken advantage of the vaccine for their children.

This is particularly true when you realize that the vaccine apparently has no bad side effects.

The vaccine is relatively cheap, and those who can't afford to pay can secure it free.

There is still time to nip this epidemic in the bud. If every child is vaccinated, now, against measles, many children will live who would otherwise have died. And many babies whose minds would have been crippled will grow up healthy and normal.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Say, this could turn into a really swinging Republican primary this June—especially at the county level, could it not?

The surprise announcement by County Clerk Garfield R. Leaf that he would not seek re-election to the office he has held since 1950 opened the floodgates for a rash of candidates in what could be a classic political donnybrook before the smoke clears.

Add a hot contest for the County Clerk nomination to the battle for Sheriff and a contest for County Treasurer and you have the ingredients for a campaign that should bring even the most disinterested voter out of the bulrushes.

It is a little surprising that Leaf didn't try to pass the mantle to one of his assistants by stepping out of office now and getting the County Board of Supervisors to name his choice as the acting Clerk.

This would have given the appointee a definite edge in the balloting because he could campaign as the incumbent and could also place himself at the top of the clerk candidate list on the ballot.

The late L. J. Wilnot arranged for the appointment of Stephanie Pucin Sulthuis as his successor on his retirement and she went on to defeat Frank Watts of Highland Park in the 1960 primary.

The campaign for County Clerk should offer some interesting contrasts in campaign styles with Truman (Snapper) Gerretsen, of Fox Lake, appearing on the same platform as Robert J. Milton and Robert H. (Mickey) Babcox.

Gerretsen will undoubtedly stress his experience in the office and his tenure as a village and township official.

Milton, operating from a solid base as chairman of the Lake County Republican Central Committee, can be expected to stress his long service to the party and to concentrate his efforts on those party members with whom he has worked closest over the years.

Babcox, who served the county as coroner for 12 years and put on a spirited campaign for Sheriff in 1958, will undoubtedly wage the most flamboyant campaign and will depend largely on the personal organization he developed during his long time as Coroner.

As of this writing Milton has not announced his candidacy, but he has indicated that he will be a candidate and in fact had toyed with the idea before Leaf's announcement.

Babcox also had been laying plans for a campaign the long time leaseholder in the County Clerk's office and Leaf's retirement announcement prompted him to announce his own candidacy ahead of schedule.

You can expect a loud clamor for Milton to step down as Central Committee Chairman if he throws his hat in the ring for the county post.

It looks like the endorsement issue for the 1966 primary is a dead item, but it will probably be revived before the next primary rolls around.

Several townships have already indicated they are opposed to endorsements this late in the campaign and the fighting in some others indicates a lack of unanimity that would spell defeat for the proposal.

An interesting legal point could postpone action on the Sheriff's Merit Commission regulations slated for presentation at the next county board meeting.

Since the Merit Commission is short one member as a result of the resignation of John Hayes, can the commission legally submit a proposal for board consideration?

Board Chairman Kenneth Henke will have to appoint a new member, but the appointment can hardly come after review of the commission rules.

There is still underground agitation for re-apportionment of County Boards of

Your Congressman

Reports....

One of the most cutting proposals before the Congress is that of "tax sharing." If such a "tax-sharing" bill is passed, an amount equal to 2 percent of total Federal revenues will be returned to the states to be used as the state governments shall determine.

The pending tax-sharing plan, sometimes referred to as the Heller plan, was first developed by Walter Heller, former Chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers. It is backed by the Governors' Conference, an influential body with which to contend. In recent years, leaders in both political parties have advocated tax sharing.

The present proposal, is new only in the sense that it proposes a sharing of Federal revenues—with no strings attached. It also presupposes a surplus in the Federal Treasury.

Federal grants to the states originated in 1836 when the surplus remaining from the sale of public lands was "loaned" to the states. However, modern day grants to the states began in 1916 with the appropriation of funds for highway purposes, requiring approval of a Federal agency as a condition to receiving an allocation of Federal monies. Existing sharing of Federal revenues may be found in more than 80 Federal grant-in-aid programs which earmark Federal funds for specific purposes. Also, most of the present programs require matching funds by the state governments. During the current fiscal year, Federal appropriations for state grant-in-aid programs will total more than $13 billion.

The proposed "no strings attached" allocation of Federal revenues to the states is predicated upon a continuing increase in Federal tax receipts. The pressure upon state governments for additional services encourages state officials to explore this as well as other possible sources of additional revenue. The tax-sharing proposal appeals particularly to those who find nothing objectionable in Federal handouts, provided they do not include Federal "controls."

On the surface, the tax-sharing measure is most attractive. It purports to strengthen state governments by providing the states with added revenues. Also, it is intended to relieve state and local officials of bureaucratic controls from Washington. These arguments in behalf of (a) decentralization, and (b) reduction of bureaucratic controls, are right on target.

However, as one contemplates such a proposal, several questions come to mind. It would seem well to be reminded that under the Articles of Confederation (which preceded our Federal Constitution) the government of the 13 states operated a sort of tax-sharing plan under which the sole Federal revenues were those which the states contributed to it from their tax collections. Few would deny that our Federal system began to operate more effectively when the national government obtained its independent sources of revenue as provided in the Federal Constitution. The present proposal (the converse of the situation prevailing when our Republic was founded) suggests that the 50 states may be incapable of producing their own revenues.

Supervisors on the one hand, one-vote formula, but we are nagged by the thought that advocates of a re-map are more concerned with changing the makeup than they are in adherence to a vague ideal.

The U. S. Senate was explicitly exempted from the Supreme Court's apportionment ruling, but the House of Representatives was not.

Does this mean that small states will have to be combined with neighboring states to achieve equal representation in Congress?

PARENTS IN SCOUTING

What are parenthood's greatest awards? We are sure everyone would agree that seeing their son grow to manhood as a citizen of high moral character, trained in leadership, and physically fit would be a pretty good award. How can you play a part in this?

Support those who help your son.

Know the leaders to whom your boy is entrusted. Let them know their leadership is appreciated. Remember, they are volunteers. Be prepared to help as requested.

Know what is expected as to meetings, uniforms, equipment, dues and earning one's way.

Ask leaders about boy's progress.

Know advancement plan. Inquire about the council financial needs, and aid in seeing that the money is provided.

Be sure your son's attendance and participation in activities is 100%.

Nothing is more disappointing to both leaders and boys than to have a parents night and only a very small group of parents attend, a lot of work goes into planning these programs. When parents do not come out for these programs, the leaders cannot help but feel that no one cares. These are YOUR boys.

A close examination of the relative positions of the Federal and state treasuries discloses that the Federal debt has increased steadily since 1960. A modest surplus was recorded in the last fiscal year of President Eisenhower's administration. Since then, the Treasury has reported annual deficits of from $3.5 billion to $6 billion during the six fiscal years of 1961 to 1966. Where, then, is the "Federal tax surplus" in which the states would share?

A number of the states have demonstrated a far better record of fiscal management. Michigan is reported to have an accumulated surplus of more than $122 million. Pennsylvania finished its last fiscal year with a surplus of $105 million. Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio and Texas have all reported surpluses of revenues over expenditures.

It is expected that the measure for "tax sharing" will be a major issue before the 2nd Session of the 89th Congress.

Topreer as Scoutmaster and Harry Jesse as Chairman. This troop which served boys in the Grass Lake area for many years is now inactive?

Why? No leaders. Grass Lake has a Pack operating for boys from age 8 to 10 and an Explorer Post for boys aged 14 to 17. We have a missing link. When boys graduate from Cubbing they have no Troop to join. This also affects the Post as their main source of new boys is from the Troop. A half a dozen people could fill this gap and provide a full Scouting program for the boys in this area.

We hope everyone saw the displays by Troop 92 and Pack 192 in the window of Barnstable Dept. Store this week.

COMING EVENTS:

Northwest District First Aid Meet, March 12. Very important training experience for our boys. We hope all our local Troops are planning to attend.

Lectures On Dante Available From Govt. Printing Office

Lectures by three authorities on Dante—presented in the Dante Symposium held at the Library of Congress last spring in salute to the 700th anniversary of the great Italian poet's birth—are now available in a handsome brochure published by the Library late in the anniversary year.

Entitled "Dante Alighiere: Three Lectures," the attractively designed paperback is for sale at the Government Printing Office at 25 cents a copy. Requests should be mailed to Supt. of Documents, Govt. Printing Office, Washington D. C.

The lectures, which explore the relevance and influence of Dante in the modern world, were sponsored by the Library's Gertrude Clarke Whittall Poetry and Literature Fund in two sessions on the afternoon and evening of May 1, 1965, and were broadcast a week later by Radio Station WGMS of Washington.

Letters to the Editor

February is Americanism month for war veteran members of The American Legion, for the ladies of the Auxiliary, the Junior Auxiliary and the sons of the American Legion.

Throughout the vast organization, the Legion and its components will hold special programs designed to renew their incentive to express by word and deed their faith in the American Creed.

This is a time to arouse Americans in all walks of life to speak out for freedom and the basic principles of the American Way of Life.

America's pioneers and founders suffered, fought and died for the basic principles of individual freedom which are our inheritance. The struggle continues to this day. Now as never before, our nation's principles and aspirations are under attack by totalitarian enemies and ideologies seeking to destroy not only principles but also the spiritual faith upon which they rest.

The American Legion had long recognized the fact that the youth of our nation would one day assume the duties of citizenship. The Legion leaders instituted School Awards programs, Oratorical contests, Boys State, Girls State, Junior Baseball and numerous other programs. It supports over 4000 Boy Scout troops and thousands of Girl Scouts, all in promoting "Good Citizenship."

Using the effective incentive awards process, these programs focus public interest, not upon freedom and personal responsibilities as a political and/or philosophical abstraction but as the vitalizing essential and basic component of American home, community, and National life.

Proven during the years since its founding, the unique awards process offered by The American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary to the American people has bulwarked the faith and active support of The American Way wherever our flag flies.

Every area of spiritual, economic and civic life has been affirmatively recognized for work for GOD and COUNTRY.

The responsibility of every true American is to personally understand and maintain "The American Way of Life," to honor it by his own exemplary conduct and to pass it intact to succeeding generations.

To the Editor:
An open letter to Dr. Baker Dear Dr. Baker:

You resented my "poking fun" at the Health Department's refusal to live in the new courthouse and wrote me that "honest criticism of government is a fundamental right and a responsibility of citizens" but "disparaging comment, no matter how cute, discourages conscientious people from continuing in public service."

In return I mentioned that a "smack aleck" approach was the easiest way to alert voters to the inadequacies of their governmental operations; that as far as criticism of the Health Department went I knew of numerous cases which had been brought to its attention, but were completely ignored.

The County page of the News-Sun, Feb. 10, substantiates my assertion. The garbage disposal problem in Antioch was brought to your department's attention "several years ago." Why hasn't something been done?

The article mentioned that John Morris, former head of Public Works, said the S & K operation was unsuitable for a landfill operation but "inferred that the County would not be willing to undergo extensive litigation to get rid of the landfill." (quote, News-Sun).

Since the County could afford attorneys' fees to fight the taxpayers' suit against construction of the courthouse (7th floor included) and is paying to collect delinquent personal property taxes as low as $50, it would seem justifiable to do something about a site so rat infested that "boys drive on to the property at night and shoot with rifles at the rodents." (New-Sun).

I know you dislike having me discuss your budget, but with a $426,000 appropriation for 1966 maybe your department could afford to prosecute the case yourselves. You might ask the Public Works department to "kick in" a little to help you, since this pollution finds its way into Sequoit Creek and thence to the Chain of Lakes.

Chain of Lakes pollution makes the Public works people livid with indignation, and they must have a little tough since they're suing to get control of a private water corporation.

Yours, in the interest of clean government.

Editor News
Antioch, Ill.
Dear Mr. Editor:

I read the other day that a new postal rate increase is being studied, aimed at reducing the growing postoffice deficit.

How much of this deficit is caused by Communist literature now jamming the mail as a result of the Supreme Court's decision? You may recall that the Court recently ruled unconstitutional an earlier ban on Red propaganda. This decision was hailed with much glee by the Reds and with great dismay by most Americans who gave it much thought.

Rep. Glenn Cunningham (R-Neb.) has introduced a bill that would close the mail to the Reds. He says, "The U. S. mail should be closed to Communist bloc countries which refuse to deliver American publications through their own mails. The Red countries are now flooding our deficit-ridden postal system with their newspapers, periodicals, and other printed matter, while they offer us nothing in return."

So remember, next time you hear about another hike in postal rates, that it is caused, at least in part, by the Supreme Court's decision to let the postman stuff your mailbox with Red junk mail you don't want. Isn't it too bad that the U. S. citizen is forced to subsidize the distribution of Red literature aimed at undermining and eventually destroying the American way of life?

Yes, there IS something you can do about it. Take the next five minutes to write your Congressman and urge him to support Cunningham's bill.

Yours truly,
Morris H. Banner

Happiness is finding that you have a refund due you on income tax.

No More Red Wigs!

That is, no more wigs made of hair from Communists.

But you didn't realize you were being unpatriotic when you bought that wig. That is, if the wig had hair from Communist China in it.

The government has clamped down on helping the Communist cause with the income from the sale of hair. No more wigs will be imported from Belgium, France, Great Britain, Italy, or West Germany unless the importer can prove they contain no Chinese Communist hair.

As Oriental hair is not desirable in wigs, this shouldn't prove too great a hardship for the American girls.

Cutting Down the Slaughter

In the wake of a considerable outcry against the lack of safety built into today's cars, major automobile manufacturers are announcing some coming attractions in safety features.

GM and American Motors both say they'll have collapsible steering wheels in their 1967 cars. Chrysler is giving consideration to the same idea, and Ford says they'll follow the same trend.

In addition, General Motors will install dual brakes for 1967. So if you don't like the way your husband drives, just put on the brakes. Could lead to some interesting tangles. Wonder if you'll have to have a driver's license to use the brakes?

Well, my daddy always said, "Keep anything ten years, you'll find a use for it." What's more, you'll often find a use for it at a handsome profit.

Collecting all sorts of items as a hobby has become big business in the U. S. Whether or not an article has any use seems to have little bearing on its value — it's the rarity that counts.

Comic books of 20 years ago now fetch a big price. And if you have any old dime novels stashed in your attic, some of them are worth $10 to $15 each.

Latest status symbol—it's awfully hard to keep up on the latest in status symbols—is collecting old letters and signatures. The letter need not necessarily be signed by a famous person—it might be a letter from Grandma or Grandpa telling of some historic event.

So now, weep a little over the treasure you threw out in some clean-up campaign.

They also resolved to have at least one member of their association present at all village board meetings so that they would be aware of any proposed action on the dump.

It was announced at the meeting that S & K Garbage Removal had been purchased by HOD. Village board members

Give First Aid Demonstration

Dan Dugenske, assisted by Howard Shepard, explained the principles of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and demonstrated the technique to 37 teachers from the Antioch Grade School system last week.

Dugenske pointed out that knowledge of the methods of resuscitation could well prove valuable to any teacher in an emergency. The mouth-to-mouth method was proven so superior to earlier methods of resuscitation that it is now used almost exclusively.

Superintendent Richard Whitacre commented that he felt the demonstration was one of the most interesting and informative programs that has been presented at the school.

Loop Dead.....

(Continued from page 1) it costs to maintain it for a year. Patzer agreed to try to assemble some data and present it at the next board meeting.

The problem boiled down to whether the village would be better off building a filtration plant or looping the dead end mains, Toft said. "If we build the filtration plant, I'm sure we'll have to raise the water rates," Toft said. "You just can't spend money without taking it in. Maybe, if we loop the dead end mains, we'd be able to reduce the rates before long. I think we should find a way to ask the people which they want."

Village Attorney Edward Jacobs said the proposition could be presented to the people in a referendum, "but you'd have to give them more information than they have now."

Sewers and Surface Water

Vern Barnstable, asked board approval to purchase 315 feet of 10-inch tile, to clear up a problem of surface water on Bishop St. and to repair the drain in Sequoit Creek at the Fox property. HOD, he said, had agreed to knock out the sewer dam at that spot, and Leo Fox would remove it. The village would then install proper tile to provide free flow.

Barnstable also reported he had received complaints of sewerage backing up into basements on Spafford St. He and Simonsen agreed the problem was probably caused by surface water entering the sewer system and overflowing it.

Simonsen said that as far as he knew, no downspouts or drainage tile were connected to the sewer system, but they would have to use a smoke test or dye test to trace out the source of hidden drainage. The mayor instructed Simonsen to investigate, using a smoke machine to trace any drainage into the sewer system.

Police Chief Jack Heick asked permission to hire Stanley Drogosz, a retired Chicago police officer, to train new patrolmen on the Antioch force. The matter was referred to the police committee.

Heick also recommended the establishment of a No Parking area from Fillweber Court to Lake St., on the east side of Spafford. Increased traffic at the entrance of the State Bank made it necessary, he said. The village attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance to that effect.

Heick also asked that the attorney draw up an ordinance allowing the police and street crew to post signs limiting load limits of trucks to six tons per axle on village streets where it became necessary during thaws. Approval of the limit was given.

The board approved a motion to purchase sergeant's badges from Emil Ehmer for $35, to be used by Harold Mason and to become property of the village.

Attorney Edward Jacobs

66 Charged With Gambling

State police raided 58 Lake County locations suspected of gambling Tuesday, and arrested 66 persons. Most of them were charged with gambling and released on bond.

The raids started at 2 p.m. Forty pinball machines, horse race betting slips, jar games and other gambling paraphernalia were seized.

The raids were made on information collected by the Illinois Crime Investigating commission. Sheriff Charles Larson was not informed of the impending raids.

Six of the spots raided were in Waukegan. Four were in the Antioch area. Those in Antioch included California Inn, Route 173 west of Antioch, Casey's Tap, Main St., Cole's Tavern, Main St., and Dortmund Inn, Route 173.

announced that approval had been given to his request to take all public property in the village off the tax rolls. Taxes paid by the village had amounted to about $400, he said.

The problem of draining excess surface water from around the Scout House was discussed, and the village engineer agreed to investigate the matter. Arthur Meierdick announced that the police department is still taking applications for patrolmen.

Vern Barnstable and Edgar Simonsen reported several requests for use of the Scout House. A committee of Irving Walsh, Arthur Meierdick and Robert Wilton were appointed to investigate the possibility of charging for use of the Scout House when not being used by Scout groups.

Appoint Chairman of Red Cross Drive

John J. Fitzgerald, 235 N. Butterfield Road, Libertyville, has been appointed volunteer Red Cross fund chairman for the Lake Villa and Lindenhurst area, according to Robert H. Mische, vice chairman of the Red Cross fund drive.

The Red Cross fund drive will be conducted in March in 43 Lake County communities. Fitzgerald, head cashier of the Lake Villa Trust and Savings Bank, was the Red Cross fund chairman in the Lake Villa and Lindenhurst area last year and is treasurer of the Lake Villa Chamber of Commerce.

He said the goal, $92,000 for the entire county area, will be used to help cover the cost of nation-wide and worldwide service programs of the American Red Cross as well as to help meet the costs of the Mid-America Chapter's expanding service programs here.

Fitzgerald will plan and organize the Red Cross drive in his area and will be supported by a corps of volunteer workers, Mische said.

About Bowling.....by Dick Ericson

THE PROPER BALL: Selecting one ball to harmonize with the color schemes of your bowling ensembles can be a bit sticky. (If you want to get away from basic black, that is.) To be really safe, the chic bowler will buy one of each.

THE PROPER BALL: In selecting the proper ball, the beginning bowler gives first concern to the thumb hole. It should not be too loose, nor too tight. Place the thumb in the thumb hole and rotate the thumb clockwise and counterclockwise rapidly. There should be little or no friction. Leaving the thumb in the thumb hole, place the hand over the contour of the ball and check the second creases of the two middle fingers. If they extend about 1/4-inch past the inner edge of the hole, this is said to be a well-fitted conventional type ball.

Commonwealth Edison Company earnings were up 0.5 cent and revenues were up 5.0 per cent in 1965 as compared with the previous year.

WEATHER MODIFICATION

New hope for weather modification possibilities is now being reported by scientists and will be given careful attention in Illinois. William C. Ackermann, chief of the Illinois State Water Survey, has reported.

After several discouraging years for cloud seeding studies, there is a strong feeling among many scientists that promising results are just around the corner, Ackermann said.

Our greatest encouragement today lies in recent advances in computer and laboratory facilities which may eventually allow us to obtain the basic scientific knowledge that is needed, Ackermann said. Long sampling periods would be required in Illinois to make a reliable evaluation of cloud seeding experiments from surface rainfall data.

Food Allergies Induce Lethargy

APTOS, Calif.—If you feel weary on arising in the morning and often have a tired, dragged-out feeling, you may be suffering from a food allergy. This warning came from California physician W. B. Herter who reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association that he and several of his patients experienced overwhelming lethargy when they ate such allergenic foods as corn, chocolate, citrus fruits and sea food. On a non-allergenic diet, the physician and his patients were so full of energy, he reported, that they "felt like beating up wild cats." Dr. Herter noted that one's "personality improves and one looks and feels happy" when on the proper diet.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC FEARED

Measles may strike in epidemic proportions this spring if present indications continue. Nearly 2,000 cases of measles were reported in the state during January, a higher total than was reported in any January since 1962, according to Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health. Dr. Yoder urged parents to have their children immunized against measles. The vaccine is recommended for all children nine months of age and older, including those in their early teens who have never had measles. Vaccine may be used as late as the tenth day after exposure.

Jane Andersen Becomes Bride

A double-ring service at the Antioch Methodist Church on Saturday, January 29, united Miss Jane Marie Andersen and Terry Ingram Cooper in marriage.

The Rev. L. H. Messersmith and the Rev. D. M. Cobb officiated at the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Legion Auxiliary

By Del Jahneke

At the February 11th Pot-Luck Supper Birthday Party of the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary, a short business meeting was held, presided over by Mrs. Ray Rathmann. The members voted to purchase four copies of "Need A Lift?", two to be given to the Antioch Township High School; and two to go to the Antioch Township Public Library. This booklet, which contains knowledge of hundreds of available scholarships to high school students, is compiled by the American Legion, in conjunction with several other organizations, and many educational institutions.

The Antioch Unit contributes annually to the Auxiliary Loan Fund; so that they are eligible to help a qualified student win a scholarship. Mrs. Anton Johnson is the Unit's Auxiliary Loan Chairman.

The American Legion Auxiliary also offers ten National President's Scholarships of $1,000.00 each. Candidates for these are girls who are children of deceased veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean Conflict; are in the senior year in high school; and are in need of financial assistance to continue their education.

Illinois' own Opportunity Scholarships are awarded by the Auxiliary Loan Fund Board in amounts of $650.00 and $350.00 and are given on the same basis as the National President's Scholarships. In the event an Illinois entrant wins a National Scholarship, the Opportunity scholarships are given to the second and third place winners in the state. Otherwise, they go to first and second place winners. In addition, 4 scholarships of $200 each will be given to applicants for the National President's Scholarships, on the same basis, except that they will be awarded to living veteran's daughters.

These "gift" scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis. Entrants must submit a letter of application and other required data. Rules governing the requirements may be obtained from Mrs. Rathmann or Mrs. Anton Johnson.

The Auxiliary Loan Fund Board also periodically offers a scholarship to a son of a veteran or a veteran, himself, the amount to be decided by the Board depending upon need and other qualifications and circumstances.

Application for this may also be made through the local Unit.

Other Legion and Auxiliary scholarships and educational aids, including the Auxiliary's Student Loan Fund, as well as information about hundreds of college and vocational scholarships for qualified high school students are all listed in "Need A Lift?".

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God," is one of the Bible passages included in this week's service on "Mind" to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Also included are these related lines from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy:

"The expression mortal mind is really a solecism, for Mind is immortal, and Truth pierces the error of mortality as a sunbeam penetrates the cloud."

This lesson is the last in a series exploring the nature of Deity through a group of special terms—Life, Truth, Love, Spirit, Soul and Mind.

Applicants must have three years experience as a performing musician or related work plus three years experience as the leader or conductor of a 20 voice choral group. One year must have been at the equivalent of director.

Progress on two fronts of the Viet Na-Mom Airlift program were reported today by Henry Bogdala, general chairman of the morale building project.

In separate sessions this week the Mom selection committee adopted broad rules covering the selection of the Lake County Mother who will travel to Viet Nam on Mother's Day to visit fighting men overseas, and two entertainment units went through rehearsals for the first of a series of shows to be presented at the U. S. Navy Hospital at Great Lakes.

Criteria for the selection of the "Mom" stress the idea of an actual selection rather than a popular election or choice by chance, according to Mrs. Louise Mack, a Gold Star Mother who was named chairman of the "Mom" selection committee.

"Appearance, personality, adaptability, and community service will be the primary factors in making the selections," according to Mrs. Mack.

Candidates for the honor should have a son in service, but he need not be in Viet Nam at the present time, Mrs. Mack said.

Women's organizations, fraternal clubs, and veterans' organizations are asked to submit candidates for the Viet Na-Mom selection, but individuals may submit candidates, according to the selection rules.

"We want a Mother who can move through a hospital ward and cheer the young soldiers, joke with the men in the rest areas, adapt to hardships and discomfort, and reflect credit on all the mothers she will be representing," Mrs. Mack explained.

Names of candidates along with a biographical sketch and picture should be sent to Viet Na-Mom Airlift, 208 Madison Street, Waukegan.

The Candidates will be for their children," the Chicago doctor said. "Yet, measles can lead to deafness, mental retardation, encephalitis, pneumonia, otitis media—even death. And it has been predicted that there will be a major outbreak of measles this Spring."

"Parents have a tragic tendency, for example, to neglect measles immunizations screened and the final selection made by the committee. Deadline for accepting candidates is March 10, Mrs. Mack said.

Rehearsals were held by two entertainment units over the weekend with Leo Carvis, co-chairman of the entertainment committee, putting on a group through its pages at the VFW Hall in Waukegan, and Co-chairmen John Dromey and Mary Kruse putting another group through a practice session in Round Lake.

The first of the shows was scheduled for Great Lakes Hospital Wednesday with others being slated for Fort Sheridan and the Veterans Administration Hospital at Downey at later dates.

The units entertaining at the hospitals will form the nucleus for a benefit fund-raising show in April and will also provide the talent for the overseas trip.

What To Do If You Lack W-2

Many Illinois taxpayers may have to file their 1965 Federal income tax return without having received from their employer a wage and tax statement, Form W-2.

Some advice to these taxpayers was offered today by District Director of Internal Revenue, E. C. Coyle, Jr. He suggests:

Try to get a Form W-2 from your employer. If the employer has gone out of business, contact him or the present owner of the business, and request your Form W-2.

If you do not succeed, prepare your 1965 income tax return from the best information available, and file it before the April 15 deadline. Attach a note to your return explaining why the Form W-2 is missing.

Leclurer Speaks On Man's Potential

Christian Scientist Jane O. Robbins, C.S., told a public audience here Saturday that man's greatest potential is still untapped.

Fulfillment of our "larger possibilities," she said, is basically a spiritual process. It must take place through a deeper sense of prayer—"through individual awakening and spiritualization of thought."

It depends on a growing awareness of man's "relationship to God."

Miss Robbins, who served as a WAF pilot during World War II, is a recognized Christian Science practitioner from Boulder, Colorado. She is now in the midst of a tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lecturers, and spoke here under sponsorship of First Church of Christ, Scientist. The lecture was presented in the Antioch Community Consolidated Grade School, with the title "What is Your Potential?"

This new plateau in the 25 year life of the Fund was reached on January 7, 1966, less than three years after hitting $2 billion on April 3, 1963. As of January 25, 1966, Investors Mutual's assets stood at $3,020,629,285, surpassing by more than $675 million, the assets of the second largest mutual fund.

Investors Mutual, Inc., founded in 1940, reached its first $1 billion on July 17, 1956, and attained first place as the world's largest mutual fund on December 31, 1957, when only 17 years old. The Fund has maintained its top position ever since. Its 433,200 shareholders live in

Two men were seated in a bus. One of them noticed that his friend had his eyes closed.

March of Dimes Aids Two Children In Same Family with PKU Defect

In many small ways, Billy Joe Gray, who is only 2 years old, is protective toward his sister, Terry, who is almost twice his age. You see it when they're frolicking with their pointer, Fritz, for example.

Billy Joe only dimly understands why he feels protective toward his older sister. All that he knows for sure is that Terry doesn't always act like other youngsters.

Billy Joe's instincts are sound. Terry, a girl who is not like other little girls in the block. She's mentally retarded.

Terry's tragedy stems from an inherited disorder called phenylketonuria, or PKU, for short. What is singular about this story is that Billy Joe also has PKU, but, unlike his pretty sister, he's as bright as a button.

The answer to the puzzle of why a brother and sister both with PKU are so dissimilar mentally comes when you ask about their medical histories at the March of Dimes Birth Defects Center at Boston (Mass.) City Hospital.

There it's disclosed that PKU was not detected in Terry until she was 17 months old. Her mother, Mrs. Jeanne Gray, of Cohasset, Mass., had given birth to a normal boy and girl before Terry was born. In very early infancy Terry also seemed normal. Then, after Terry was about six months of age, her mother wondered why the baby never talked and was unable to roll over by herself.

PKU remained undetected in Terry until soon after Billy Joe came along, at which time his sister was 17 months old. Billy Joe was two months premature and at birth weighed only 3 lbs., 14 ounces. When Billy Joe, at the age of 23 days, failed to do as well as he should, he was tested at Boston City Hospital for PKU, an examination that had then become routine at that hospital. The results showed he had PKU.

At this point, of course, the doctors immediately suspected what might be the source of Terry's physical and mental slowness. Suspicion became certainty when Terry, after her test, also was shown to be a victim of PKU.

The PKU test was developed by Dr. Robert Guthrie of the University of New York at Buffalo with the aid of March of Dimes grants and other assistance.

Once the PKU diagnoses were made, Terry and Billy Joe were immediately placed on a special diet low in phenylalanine. This is an amino acid which builds up in the bodies of PKU victims to cause brain damage.

But, tragically, PKU inflicts its brain damage during the first few months of life. At the age of 17 months, Terry was already afflicted though she is by no means as retarded as some other children in similar circumstances. Billy Joe is thriving.

LEFT-OVERS CAN BE DELICIOUS

Do you always seem to end up with left-over vegetables but not quite enough to serve your family for another meal? An excellent way to use them up is to combine a single left-over vegetable or a combination of several with a cream sauce for delicious and economical soups. Milk, used as the base for the cream soups, provides your family a great deal of nourishment for a wintry day luncheon.

Sequoits Take Squeaker, 75-73

Three free throws, two by Jim Litchfield and one by Mike Sterbenz, gave the Sequoits a 75 to 73 win over Lake Zurich Friday night on the losers' court. Antioch had to come from behind in the closing seconds after leading through most of the contest.

The Sequoits held a comfortable 26-16 lead at the end of the first quarter but hit a cold spell in the second stanza as Lake Zurich closed the gap to within two points at halftime 30-36.

It was a close battle through the third period with the Sequoits barely able to maintain their advantage. The quarter ended with the Sequoits leading by four, 61-57.

In the fourth period the Bears rallied and took the lead for the first time since early in the first quarter. The lead changed hands a number of times until the Bears took the advantage with 40 seconds remaining, 73-72.

It was at this point that Litchfield and Sterbenz canned their game winning free throws.

Sterbenz led the scoring for the Sequoits with 19 points on eight baskets and 3 free throws. Bill Lehmann was high for Lake Zurich with 21.

Stop Grayslake 75-51

Tyrone Walls dumped in 23 points Saturday night as the Sequoits trounced Grayslake in a homecourt contest, 75-51. The victory moved Antioch into a three way tie for third place in the Northwest Suburban Conference with Round Lake and Lake Forest.

The Rams looked like they were out to make a game of it in the first quarter as they took a 19-14 lead. Doug Kilman scored 12 points in the period.

The Sequoits shifted their offense into high gear in the second period and cashed in 21 points to take a 35-31 halftime lead. The Sequoits scored 20 points in each of the final two periods to win going away.

The Sequoits will end this season's conference action Friday with a game at Wauconda and then will close out regular season play with a home contest with North Chicago.

Wauconda has managed only one victory this season and doesn't pose much of a threat to the high scoring Sequoits. The North Chicago tilt could prove an exciting contest as Antioch will be out to upset the North Suburban Conference leaders. Antioch fans will have a chance to see two of the County's best when the Sequoits Tyrone Walls and North Chicago's Rufus Woods take the court Saturday.

One can handle a hundred typical enemies, but one bitter individual can be a nasty problem, especially if it is a female.

Antioch's sophomore forward, Bruce Empfield goes high in the air to add two points in the Sequoits 75-73 win over Lake Zurich Friday night. Empfield ended with a good nights work, scoring 15 points.

Men's Singles Opens Sunday

The 21st annual Men's Singles tournament opens Sunday, February 20, at noon at the Antioch Bowl.

The singles tournament drew 1,768 entries last year, and an even larger turnout is expected by owner Jack Sampayo this year.

The first place prize of $500 and a trophy draws bowlers from Chicago and Milwaukee in addition to the crowds of local bowlers. Fans who like to see some of the "hot shots" in action have a good chance to "spectate" during the three weeks of the tournament.

The tournament will not end on March 6, as was previously intended. By permission of the ABC, Jack Sampayo has arranged to have the tournament extended another week. It will close Saturday night, March 12.

Bowling will start at 10 a.m. on weekends, with four-man squads bowling every 20 minutes. It's a handicap tournament, each man bowling three lines across six alleys. Squads will also compete on weekday afternoons.

Special prizes include high handicap and actual series on the first day of the tournament, next Sunday. After that, there are special prizes for high handicaps and actual series on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 2 and 27, and for high game and series weekday, Feb. 26 and 27, and for an extra prize for the high game on each pair of alleys.

The Bears' 19-point output for the final 70-63 margin. The Sequoits got excellent scoring balance as all five starters hit in double figures. Steve Miklautsch led with 17 followed by Al Alexander with 15, Tony Barnett with 14, Joel Strahan with 12 and Greg Drije with 10.

Brill led for the losers with 20 points. Lake Zurich shot well from the field themselves, hitting at a respectable 42.0 clip. Rebounding was even for the two clubs, each getting 31.

The Sequoits prep virtually nailed down second place in the NW conference Saturday as they turned back Grayslake 4-30. The win gave the Sequoits a season's mark of 14-2 thus far.

Ozga Scores 30 Points In Stout Win

Bill Ozga, "The Big O," helped to keep Stout State College in the conference lead by contributing 30 points in a recent basketball game against Eau Claire.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ozga of Antioch. To quote the Dunn County News in its report of the game, "Captain Bill Ozga, who scored 34 points the last time the two teams met, took top scoring honors with 30 points. Ozga hit 12 of 18 attempts from the floor, and literally killed Eau Claire's zone defense with his long range shooting. Ozga added six of seven from the charity line to finish his second most successful night scorewise. The Stout-Eau Claire game ended with a score of 77-64.

Topic — Education

Few topics are so widely discussed as education. In all its many ramifications, just about everyone agrees that, in this age of amazing and almost unbelievable advances in technology and the sciences, it is more vital to the national future—to say nothing of the futures of individuals—than it ever was before. At the same time, there is endless controversy over the quality of education, particularly as it involves economics and the roles of law and government in our national life.

That fact gives particular interest to a survey among American high school juniors and college juniors, conducted by Northwestern University, Purdue University, the University of Wisconsin, and U. S. News & World Report. Its purpose was to determine political trends among young Americans. The results were reported in a recent issue of Action magazine, which is a publication of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

To put it mildly, the opinions expressed were startling and unsettling. They leave a big question mark as to the character of our educational methods. Among students surveyed:

71 per cent would deny an accused person the right to confront his accuser.

40 per cent believe certain groups should be denied the right to peaceful assembly.

41 per cent believe freedom of the press should be cancelled.

34 per cent favor denying free speech to certain persons.

26 per cent would allow search and seizure without consent.

56 per cent voted for close government regulations on all business.

53 per cent believe in government ownership of banks, railroads and steel companies.

62 per cent said government has a responsibility to provide jobs.

62 per cent thought a worker should not produce all he can.

61 per cent rejected the profit incentive as necessary to the survival of free enterprise.

84 per cent denied that patriotism is vital and plays an important role in our lives.

These concepts, obviously, would, if adopted, totally revolutionize the American economic and political systems. Some—such as the search and seizure and the right of the accused to face the accuser opinions, would demand outright repeal of fundamental protections laid down by the Bill of Rights. At great many people undoubtedly agree with a view expressed by Robert R. Carey, president of Associated Oregon Industries, when he said: "A number of writers, analyzing these figures, believe they provide additional proof that the doom-sayers are not far wrong in their predictions of a welfare state in this country. But more importantly the results also reveal the quality of courses in history, economics and American government offered in most high schools and colleges these days. Then, too, the results offer an eloquent rebuttal to the thesis that the minimum age for voting should be lowered. If a majority of those under 21 do not know what American government is all about, as the results of this survey would indicate, it is doubtful that they could intelligently exercise a right to vote. More than anything, these shocking figures tell us of the massive job to be done in the education of our youngsters—not only in the schools, but also through the business community."

March 31 Deadline For Enrollment In Medicare

Bernard Barnett, Social Security District Manager in Waukegan, advised that residents of McHenry and Lake Counties who have not made a decision regarding Medicare should do so as soon as possible. To date about 2/3 of the people have sent back their enrollment cards, and 90% have checked "yes" for medical insurance protection.

Individuals still having questions about any phase of the Medicare program should contact their social security representative. Barnett emphasized that the administration is anxious to make sure that everyone who is eligible makes an informed decision about Medicare—and makes it before March 31, 1966 if they were 65 or over by January 1, 1966.

Anyone undecided at this time should consider that a "yes" now can be changed to a "no" through June 30, 1966; however, a "no" or an "undecided" after March 31, 1966 will prevent anyone from changing their eligibility until October, 1967—and then the cost will be higher.

As an added convenience to people who find it difficult to call during the regular work week, special hours have been established. The Waukegan office will be open on Mondays until 9:00 P.M. and Saturdays until noon. In addition, even though most Federal Agencies will be closed because of the holiday, the office will also remain open on February 22, 1966 from 8:45 A.M. to 4:45 P.M.

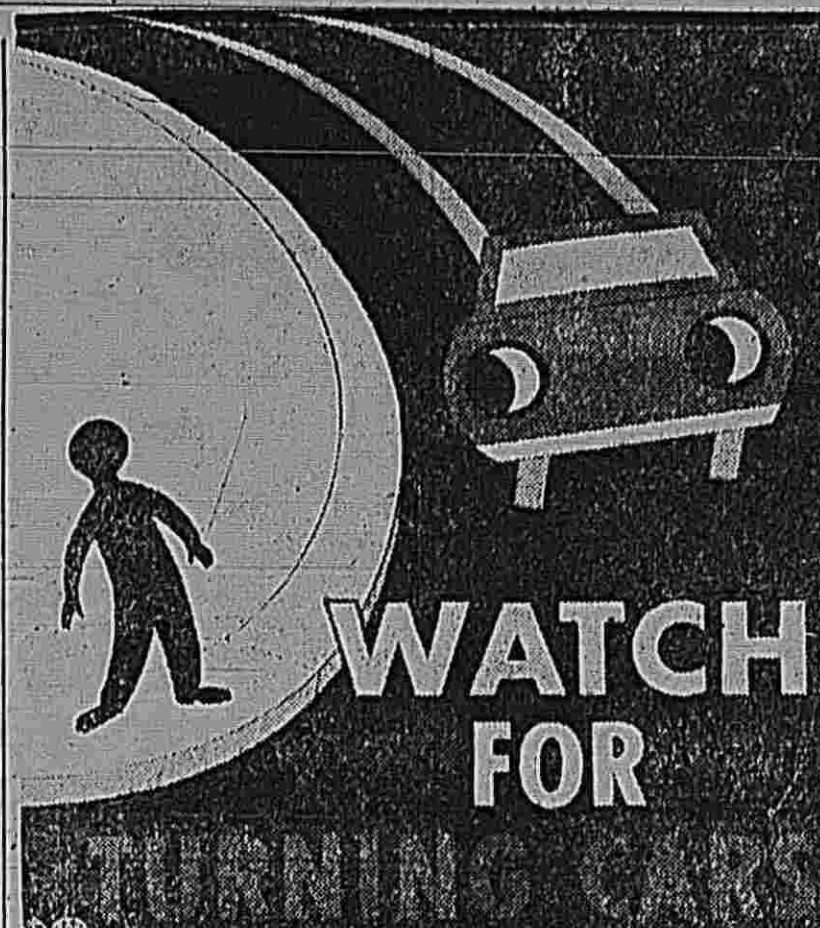

The Waukegan District Office is located at 2500 Grand Avenue, or phone 244-5050.

"Watch for Turning Cars" is the theme of the February school safety poster sent by the Chicago Motor Club to more than 45,000 grade-school classrooms in its Illinois-Indiana territory. When crossing at a corner, all pedestrians—young and old—should stop, look carefully for turning cars, then look left and right for passing autos. Two signals that a car will be turning are flashing turn signals or a driver's extended arm. Also be alert for the careless driver who does not signal. Remember that the time to look for turning automobiles is before you step off the curb. Pedestrians have the responsibility to walk carefully, look carefully, and live.

Flower Show At McCormick Place

The theme of the World Flower Show and Garden Show, "America the Beautiful," will be vividly portrayed by members of the Garden Club of Illinois when the show opens at McCormick

Place on March 19. The show will run through March 27.

Artistic design classes will be staged to weave the story of America, the Beautiful, in interpretations of such classes as "For Spacious Skies," "From Sea to Shining Sea" and "Thine Alabaster Cities Gleam."

Mardi Gras Tea For New Homemakers

New members of the Lake County Homemakers Extension Association participated in a Mardi Gras tea given for them on February 3 at the Lake County Fairgrounds auditorium on Route 45, Grayslake. This annual event had all the gaiety of a real Mardi Gras and the theme was carried out in the decorations, the refreshments, the program and the games. All members were costumed.

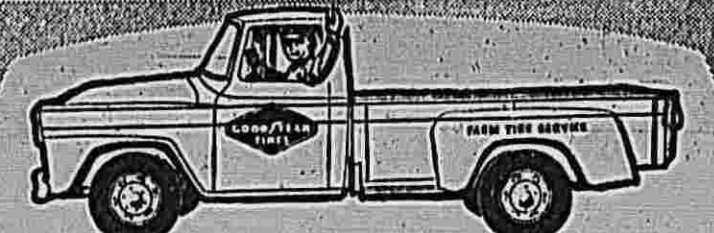

Mrs. Helen Volk, Lake County home adviser, greeted the members. She stated that through the Extension's Service's years of existence in Lake County 10,000 families were enrolled and have benefited in 4-H groups and adult units. In the past fiscal year of this organization almost 100 new members joined the various units.

Mrs. Volk introduced Mrs. Marjorie Robbins, Assistant Home Adviser. Her work is primarily with the 4-H youth groups. There are at present 42 organized 4-H clubs in Lake County.

Homemakers Extension units are available to anyone interested in Home Economics. It is an adult education program for the homemaker sponsored by the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service. If you are interested in Extension work or in joining a unit do contact Mrs. Helen Volk, Home Adviser, at Baldwin 3-4844.

Dr. SIMS says... SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

TEST YOUR EYE-Q

Have you ever stopped to think how many of your friends and business associates wear glasses or contact lenses? Chances are that more than half of them do, for statistics show that 85 million Americans, out of a population of 185 million, sport one or the other. Absolutely perfect vision is so rare, that less than one per cent of our population enjoys it.

The problem of defective vision—due principally to hereditary and personal neglect—has given rise to many "helpful hints" on the care of the eyes in recent years. Though some are true, others are completely erroneous and cause a lot of undue worry. Let's examine some of the more popular beliefs making the rounds today. Do you believe that...

1. EATING CARROTS WILL IMPROVE YOUR VISION? This age-old idea is absolutely false. Carrots and other dark-yellow and green vegetables are an excellent source of pro-vitamin A, which helps produce the chemical reaction involved in seeing, but eating them by the carload—or abstaining from them completely—will definitely not affect your vision.

2. READING ON TRAINS AND BUSES IS HARMFUL? False, at least in most cases. Most people, particularly commuters, have no trouble reading while riding a train or bus. "The eyes may tire on occasion, however, at which time you should stop reading."

3. WATCHING TELEVISION CAN CAUSE EYE STRAIN? This, too, is false.

In fact, most ophthalmologists agree that there is no such thing as eye strain. If you spend many hours at a time in front of your set without resting your eyes periodically, however, you can suffer eye fatigue. Should your eyes tire easily, better have them examined by a physician.

4. CHILDREN USUALLY OUTGROW CROSSED EYES? Another popular, but erroneous idea. Crossed eyes should be treated as early as possible, lest blindness result. The condition—usually due to improper control of the muscles which move the eyes—is usually cured with glasses, eye drops, exercises or surgery or possibly a combination of these.

5. COMMON "RED EYE" CAN BE DANGEROUS? This is true. Although often considered harmless, common "red eye" can cause blindness, even death. If the redness is caused by a speck of dust, virus or allergy, there is no serious cause for alarm.

On the other hand, it might also be due to increased pressure in the eye, a condition that could lead to blindness unless treated properly. So regard any redness as a possible danger sign.

6. NEARSIGHTEDNESS CAN BE CURED BY WEARING GLASSES? False. Wearing glasses cannot arrest or cure nearsightedness. By the same token, you can't improve the condition by not wearing them. Only in rare cases will glasses alleviate nearsightedness, which generally increases until about 20 years of age.

BUYING "ON TIME"

Buying "on time" has become a way of life in our society. Of the millions of transactions of this type entered into every year, certainly a very small per cent ever become the subject of litigation.

Among other problems which arise when there is a breach of the agreement is the question of what rights the buyer has in the goods. Also, what can the seller do in reclaiming the item or in obtaining the balance due him under the contract?

Contracts Generally
Like most contracts an agreement to buy goods "on time" imposes an obligation on each party, and when one party fails to perform his part in the bargain the other person can exercise the rights given him under the agreement or otherwise provided by law. Ordinarily we think of a breach in an installment contract in terms of the buyer failing to make payments when due. Occasionally, however, the buyer may have a separate legal right against the seller, such as when the goods do not perform as promised.

Retail Installment Sales Act
In Illinois the Retail Installment Sales Act, enacted in 1957, creates some exceptions in time sales agreements from the ordinary contract. By imposing certain restrictions on the holder of the agreement, who may be the seller or a financial institution, the Act attempts to protect the buying public.

This Act covers any agreement made in Illinois for the purchase of goods, other than for a commercial or business use or for resale, where payment is to be made in two or more installments and title to the goods, or a lien on them, is retained by the seller. This would include the ordinary purchase of goods on time such as automobiles, home appliances, furniture and other consumer items.

Among other matters covered under the Act are: (1) the size of type in which the contract must be printed; (2) a requirement that the contract must contain certain language cautioning the purchaser to not sign without reading it or if there are any blank spaces, the right to pay in advance the full purchase price and obtain a partial refund of the finance charge and under certain conditions to redeem the property if repossessed for a default; and (3) a provision that the contract must contain the cost sale price of the goods, amount of down payment, and other specific amounts to be included in the contract.

A buyer may request a written statement of the dates and amounts of payments and the total amount unpaid under such contract, and the holder of the contract must provide this information. When payment is made in cash he must give the buyer a written receipt for payment. It also sets up certain requirements regarding repossession of goods and the rights and obligations of both parties.

It should be remembered, however, the provisions of this Act are intended to protect buyers from the relatively few merchants who resort to sharp practices. When a buyer has failed to keep up the payments he must expect the consequences of losing the items through repossession, a judgment for the amount plus court costs or perhaps loss of the goods plus a "deficiency" resulting from a re-sale of the goods for less than the amount due.

The best protection against being placed in this position is knowledgeable buying practices. Where an economic change in the family indicates problems of this type are approaching it is good preventive law to consult with the merchant, a financial counselor or your lawyer.

Lutheran Pioneers Have Award Night

The Lutheran Pioneers, Train 139, of Faith Evangelical Church of Antioch held their second annual award night on Friday, Feb. 4. Families and friends of the boys were present to observe. The evening's program was opened by the boys with a prayer and pledge of allegiance to our flag.

The Recruit emblem was awarded for the first level of attainment. The newcomers to this club for boys are required to know the pledge of allegiance, history and knowledge of our flag, and the names and ranks of their leaders. During the year 1965 the following boys attained the Recruit level: Albert Frank, David Holem, Michael Lasco, Bruce Marshall, Don McBain, Keith Mortag, Jerry Rockers, Dan Saliba, and Paul Spiller.

The large gold and red Recruit emblem is worn on the right-hand shirt pocket and entitles the boy to wear the official uniform. To the left hand pocket goes the blue and white Pioneer emblem to signify the next level of attainment. The boys are instructed and tested on many subjects relating to God's visible creation and their ability to use and enjoy these blessings through their main objective, camping.

This year Pioneer emblems were presented to Larry Carlson, Jim Crichton, Paul Fager, Keith Mortag, and Roy Spiller. Some of the boys are well on the way to the third level, called Camper.

Boys who completed three years as members of the Lutheran Pioneers were issued the three year service bar to be worn on the lower left sleeve. Recipients are Larry Carlson, Don McBain, and Roy Spiller.

Good attendance at weekly meetings is recognized by issuance of bronze stars. During 1965, forty-one meetings were held and best attendance was attained by Jim Crichton and Keith Mortag.

After presentation of the various symbols of attainment, mixed with brief demonstrations of skills and knowledge by the boys, a color slide record of the annual Voyageur canoe trip out of Ely, Minnesota, into the wilderness of Canada was shown. Pioneer boys from several of the Midwestern States who attained the highest level called Frontiersman are shown on a five day campout with some of the leaders of the national organization.

Once upon a time, in an imaginary farm community somewhere in Scotland, lived a girl named Nannie who believed in the legend her Grandpa had told her since she was a little girl.

This legend was of a little magic man called Flibbertygibbet, and when he was present people prospered beyond their belief and everyone was happy. All day he played with the children and sang the babies to sleep in their cradles. At night he worked in the fields and the harvest was tremendous. But he was banished because of the greed of humans.

But now as the curtain opens, there is the sound of coric wailing wind, gay music, and flashing lights. Flibbertygibbet returns for one last chance to belong to men. If anyone finds out he has magic and tries to get Flibbertygibbet to use it for himself, Flibbertygibbet will be banished forever to a sunless and waterless waste.

Jay Horton has been cast in the role of Flibbertygibbet. Jay is a freshman at A.C.H.S. and appeared in Music Man last summer. He has always been a very agile young man, and this comes in very handy for this active role.

Pamela Hunley, who plays Nannie, is a sixth grader at the Oakland School. She seems to have inherited dramatic ability from her parents. Pam appeared in the Elves and the Shoemaker, and Come in and take on a tiger!

The only thing that looks low-priced on a Pontiac Tempest is its price sticker.

And that's removable.

Take it off, and there's just a pure, unabridged Pontiac: Crisp, Wide-Track style and handling. A handsome interior. Plus the effortless performance of a new overhead cam 6 engine that puts out with all the spunk of an 8, yet saves like the traditional 6. And of course, being a Pontiac, Tempest allows you the luxury of choice—with options in engines, transmissions, suspensions, practically everywhere. And like all Pontiacs, Tempest also has a standard safety package with items like seat belts to buckle—front and rear. (That ought to do for now. We'll tell you the rest when you get here.)
